

G. P. Intermediate School SCHOOL-PARENT COMPACT

In order to achieve the highest level of success for every student, we make this agreement to motivate, support, respect, challenge, and inspire each other as partners in education. To accomplish this, we hereby sign this compact to work together.

As a teacher and representative of the school, I will:

- Have high expectations for your child, myself, and other school staff members.
- Provide high quality curriculum in a supportive environment that enables the students to meet the State's performance goals.
- Provide a safe environment for learning.
- Discuss with parents their responsibilities for supporting improved achievement.
- Provide ongoing, effective communication by
 - informing parents and students of the purpose and meaning of the content standards and student performance standards
 - describing the instruction that students will receive
- Respect the cultural differences of students and their families.
- Arrange for Parent-Teacher conferences as needed or requested.
- Provide frequent reports on your child's progress.
- Provide opportunities for you to volunteer and/or observe in the classroom.
